

INTERNAL / EXTERNAL JOB POSTING

Community Worker Full Time Temporary Bargaining Unit position

Massey Centre (“the Centre”) is an award-winning, accredited Children’s Mental Health Centre that is a multi-service, non-profit, unionized, community agency located in the east end of Toronto. The Centre is committed to nurturing empowerment, independence and growth for young pregnant and parenting women, children and families in a non-judgmental, inclusive environment by providing a residential care and treatment program; supportive transitional housing; on-site high school program, community housing support and referral services; and maternal infant mental health programs and services. We do this by working collaboratively as a multi-disciplinary team with community partners to provide holistic programs and support that respond to mental health, education and transitional needs. The Centre also operates an EarlyON Child and Family Centre and an Early Learning Centre. All the programs and services are open to families, young women and their children living in the broader community.

The Umoja Project (the “Project”) at the Centre is supported by the Public Health Agency of Canada, with the goal of improving Mental Health and Educational Attainment for Black Parenting Youth through a Home Visiting Model. The Project will be completed by the end of March 2023.

The Community Worker will support the Project by providing direct care programs and services to students enrolled in the Education and Community Partnership Program (ECP), clients living in the Residential and Transitional Housing Programs, and adolescent parents living in the community. The Community Worker will also provide community resources, information and referrals and support these clients to achieve their education and housing goals.

As a member of the multi-disciplinary team, the Community Worker will focus on one or more program initiatives: ECP, Community Housing Information and Referral Program, or Baby & Me – Our Home Program, conducts therapeutic, educational or housing-related programming, individual, group and family counselling, and contributes to the overall functioning, goals, objectives and outcomes of the program.
