

INTERNAL / EXTERNAL JOB POSTING

Education Liaison and Outreach Facilitator Full Time Temporary Bargaining Unit position

Massey Centre (“the Centre”) is an award-winning, accredited Children’s Mental Health Centre that is a multi-service, non-profit, unionized, community agency located in the east end of Toronto. The Centre is committed to nurturing empowerment, independence and growth for young pregnant and parenting women, children and families in a non-judgmental, inclusive environment by providing a residential care and treatment program; supportive transitional housing; on-site high school program, community housing support and referral services; and maternal infant mental health programs and services. We do this by working collaboratively as a multi-disciplinary team with community partners to provide holistic programs and support that respond to mental health, education and transitional needs. The Centre also operates an EarlyON Child and Family Centre and an Early Learning Centre. All the programs and services are open to families, young women and their children living in the broader community.

The Umoja Project (the “Project”) at the ‘Centre’ is supported by the Public Health Agency of Canada, with the goal of improving Mental Health and Educational Attainment for Black Parenting Youth through a Home Visiting Model. The Project will be completed by the end of March 2023.

The Education Liaison and Outreach Facilitator will support the Project by working collaboratively with a multi-disciplinary team to increase mental health promotion and educational outcome for young Black mothers. The Facilitator will outreach to the young Black mothers in their homes or the community to help them attain educational success and take steps toward a more secure, healthy and financially independent lives.

The Facilitator will follow up and maintain contact with the young Black mothers through the Project duration, identify challenges they are faced with, connect them to, and facilitate access to the most culturally appropriate community and government programs and services.

The successful candidate will be a creative and flexible individual seeking a challenge to work with internal and external partners to address the complex needs of young Black mothers.
