

INTERNAL / EXTERNAL JOB POSTING

Community Worker

Full Time Permanent

(Bargaining Unit position)

Abiona Centre (“the Centre”) is an award-winning, accredited Children’s Mental Health Centre that is a multi-service, non-profit, unionized, community agency located in the east end of Toronto. The Centre is committed to nurturing empowerment, independence and growth for young pregnant and parenting women, children and families in a non-judgmental, inclusive environment by providing a residential care and treatment program; supportive transitional housing; on-site high school program, community housing support and referral services; and maternal infant mental health programs and services. We do this by working collaboratively as a multi-disciplinary team with community partners to provide holistic programs and support that respond to mental health, education and transitional needs. The Centre also operates an EarlyON Child and Family Centre and an Early Learning Centre. All the programs and services are open to families, young women and their children living in the broader community.

The Community Worker will provide programs and services to clients living in the Live-In Treatment and Transitional Housing Programs, and adolescent parents living in the community. The Community Worker will provide community resources, information and referrals and support these clients to achieve their housing goals.

As a member of the multi-disciplinary team, the Community Worker will conduct therapeutic or housing-related programming, individual, group and family counselling, and contribute to the overall functioning, goals, objectives and outcomes of the program and focus on Community Housing Information and Referral Program, or Baby & Me – Our Home Program,
